LET THE EUCHARIST FEED YOU

From our Pastor, Fr. James Kulway

Hi, everyone! Our Sunday readings continue with the Bread of Life discourse through John's Gospel. If you get a chance, please read the Gospel of John chapter 6 on your own to take in the whole discourse from Jesus.

In the first reading from Exodus we hear of God feeding the Israelites with manna from Heaven. They were hungry, tired, and asked God for food. He gave them something they did not really understand and when they asked Moses about it he replied, "This is the bread the Lord has given you to eat." In the Gospel, Jesus is challenged to give a sign to back up what He is teaching and they remind Jesus of this Exodus account where God gave them bread in their time of need so they could continue their journey. Jesus agrees but teaches them that even with the manna they still died; however, if they eat the bread that He will give them, they will never die. This of course is meant to continue to draw us into the mystery of the Holy Eucharist – the real flesh and blood of Christ.

Perhaps at times we feel like the Israelites. We might be saying to God, "Life is hard and I am tired – give me some bread to eat. Give me strength to continue this journey." We might look at the Eucharist and think, "What is this?", similar to how the Israelites felt about the manna. But the Church, like Moses, reminds us that this is the bread Jesus has given us to eat. Yes, it might look small, taste bland, and seem unhelpful, but it really is the bread from Heaven, and it really is the bread Jesus has given us to eat to be the strength and nourishment we need!

To really experience this in the Eucharist we need to approach the Eucharist with hunger and with faith. We need to ask for "big things" from Jesus when going to Holy Communion or when praying before the Blessed Sacrament. When you go to the Eucharist, tell Jesus you want greater faith in Him, or you need more of Him in your life, or you need understanding, etc. Try to press into this mystery rather than shy away from it. After you have received Holy Communion, take the time to pray and really enter into that moment of taking God into your person. Again, do not be afraid to ask for grace. Look deep into your heart and life, and bring that to God in that time of Holy Communion. Ask for greater faith and understanding of the Eucharist and to have greater awareness of how Holy Communion feeds you in your life.

I am very excited to have a bigger, quieter, and more peaceful place to invite you all to pray before the Eucharist after we finish our Church Renovation project. Spending time before the Eucharist is life-changing and will feed you in ways you are not yet aware of. But you must give of yourself to the Bread of Life, and give the time and real prayer to have greater awareness of how the Eucharist feeds you!

Have a blessed week!

Fr. James Kulway, Pastor

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

“The most beautiful and stirring adventure that can happen to you is the personal meeting with Jesus, who is the only one who gives real meaning to our lives.” – St. John Paul II

A Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labor.

Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to your service. Awaken in our community a missionary eagerness. Lord, SEND WORKERS TO YOUR HARVEST and do not allow humanity to be lost for the lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say “yes” to the Lord who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen. (Prayer for Vocations, St. John Paul II)
